LET'S SING

Dear Let's Sing Community,

We hope that you are enjoying your summer wherever you are, and even though we are the bearers of bad news with the untimely passing of our dear Maestro Golat, we also bring good news with updates on our recent as well as upcoming L'Orfeo performances.

Also, we are excited to announce that our annual Let's Sing Opera Competition is in the works.

The competition's official name will see a change- it will honour its founder, Luděk Golat.

We will be sharing more information and details very soon.

Wishing you a summer full of vibrant sunsets, sandy toes, cool ocean breezes, and lots of music and Opera, of course.

With deep sadness:
Maestro Luděk Golat

Sometimes, it can be hard to find the right words...

The passing of Luděk Golat at the end of May was a big shock for everyone and marks an immense loss for the world of music and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Mr. Golat's contributions to music and his artistry are countless. He performed in and directed operas all over the world, was the director of The National Moravian-Silesian Theatre, where he was the founder of its children's Opera Studio, and last but not least- he was the face and spirit of our Let's Sing project.

The whole Let's Sing Team is still grieving, but we continue his legacy and will continue to support, believe and help young Opera talent.

Thank you for everything, Maestro.

Opera for the young generation

Part of our mission is to keep opera alive, and this means that we engage and educate children about opera and give them the experience of performing and singing in front of audiences.

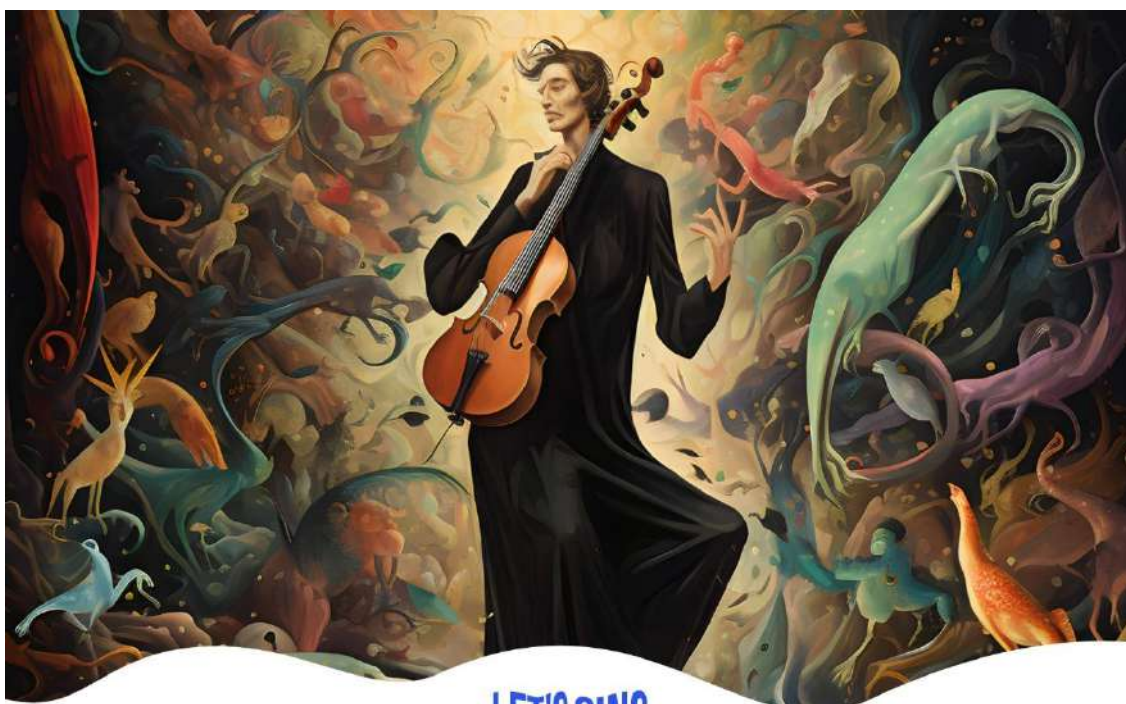

We're very proud of all the students from Opera Studio of the Moravian-Silesian National Theatre, Leoš Janáček's elementary school in Hukvaldy and Opava on Vrchní street, who joined the Let's Sing Competition 2023 winners/soloists for the three Czech L'Orfeo performances.

We will shortly be releasing video interviews where we talk about Opera and singing with the children.

Follow us on Instagram Facebook and YouTube to see them!
